An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, and people who are subject to attacks of rheumatism should never go to bed with cold feet.

A whole lot is being said about taking saits and effervesing tablets for rheumatism and sciatics, but those who anfier sharp twinges and painful swellen joints need something powerful to overcome their piteous suffering.

Any broad-minded druggist will tell you that one shalf teaspoonful of Rheuma taken once a day is driving more rheumatism out of afflicted people than sall the salts on earth. Right in this neighborhood Read & Wages and all druggists sell large quantities of it, and it's the surest and most inexpensive remedy—about 50 cents a bottle.

and took part in the discussion, February 9.

Postmaster General Burleson stated that rural service has not been developed along sound business lines, giving example after example to show that some communities are getting double and even triple service, while many others were not being served at all, and that many carriers were working nine to ten hours, handling many thousand pieces of mail, and others are going over easy routes and handling only a few thousand pieces and working three or four hours per day, yet all were receiving the same pay.

master General Burleson readily assented and he gave assurance that if routes that had been established were found not to give constant and reliable service they would be promptly changed and that the department officials did not consider economy that in the cities deliveries ran up to as high as eight a day and that we felt some economy could be practiced there. Mr. Burleson replied that he felt that in some cities that condition had been developed for the purpose; of giving more carriers places and that while it was unjust, the law fixed compensation of carriers. You can't expect nervous, run down men and women to be cheery, normal beings. They don't get one-half out of life that they deserve. But a lot of people expect it of them. In every community there are a legion of these men and women. Not really sick, perhaps, but affected with a nervous, debilitated condition so that they imagine countless things are wrong with them. They have frequent headaches, are sluggish in mind and in body and they haven't enough real energy to make them self-reliant in even the little things of life. They haven't enough rich, red blood nourish their bodies.
